2. Principles

- 2.1. UOWCA is committed to providing academic support for all students and enhancing the services and programs offered to support student success.
- 2.2. Students are expected to be active partners in their own learning and to participate in decision-making about their studies, where appropriate.
- 2.3. Interventions to provide additional support are respectful, timely, age and culturally appropriate and relevant to the student's identified needs.
- 2.4. UOWCA's use of learning analytics and other mechanisms to identify students who may have specific support needs including the data sources used and the management of student privacy, is governed by UOWCA's privacy and confidentiality requirements as outlined in the Records Management Policy and Privacy Policy.
- 2.5. Students enrolled at UOWCA are able to access a range of support services both academic and non-academic by UOWCA and the University of Wollongong as outlined in this policy.

3. Monitoring and Outreach to Support Student Progress

- 3.1. UOWCA has determined key opportunities across the student lifecycle to engage and re-engage students with their studies. In addition to teacher identification of students who are requiring support, a data-informed approach is utilised to identify students who may be at risk of not progressing with their studies ("At-Risk students") and to ensure effective monitoring is in place to support progression and completion of their studies.
- 3.2. In operationalising this support, emphasis is placed on early monitoring and recognising key factors that may indicate an "At-Risk" or "Non-Genuine" Student. Such factors include but are not limited to:
 1. Under enrolment in subjects or tutorials;
 2. Failure to access or reasonably engage with key systems;
 3. Failure to attend scheduled classes and learning activities, including online learning;
 4. Failure to submit assessment tasks or receiving subsequent fail grades;
 5. Failure to attend exams without notification; and
 6. Students in equity categories, studying remotely or on a course progress status of restricted or referral.
- 3.3. Where students are identified, outreach will be undertaken by the Student Support Team who will work in partnership with students to assess their preparedness for study, transition students into appropriate support services and continue to monitor student engagement with these support services and engagement in their learning.
- 3.4. Students from priority equity groups will receive the following support:

1. For Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, outreach will be directed by Student Advisors to Woolyungah Indigenous Centre.
 2. For students located at regional campuses within Australia, outreach will be coordinated by the Regional Campus Managers.
- 3.5. All attempts will be made to ensure additional support is made available to students prior to Census date of the relevant session with a focus on those students who are “At risk” of not achieving satisfactory course progress following the release of results for each session.
- 3.6. The Course Progression Policy details the course progress requirements and monitoring process where students have been identified as “At Risk” of not achieving satisfactory course progress.
- 3.7. UOWCA systematically collects and reports on student performance data across all teaching locations in accordance with the Course Review Report, Course Review Procedure and Student Academic Performance Tracking Guidelines.
- 3.8. UOWCA collects and reports on student performance through UOW Accredited Courses in the Annual review of UOWCA by UOW.
- 3.9. In accordance with the engagement requirements outlined in the Course Progression Policy and Attendance Policy, UOWCA may cancel a student’s enrolment where the actions or inactions of a student raise serious doubts as to their status as bona fide student. UOWCA will make all attempts to identify Non-Genuine Students and confirm enrolment status prior to Census date as per UOWCA rules.

4. Supports for Student Success

- 4.1. This section outlines the assistance available to all students to help them succeed in their studies. Early intervention is critical to ensure that students are connected to support. Non-engagement with study or available supports (where referred) may trigger an escalation to the Student Support Team for further outreach.
- 4.2. Students may self-refer to the academic and non-academic support services outlined in this policy, or be referred by academic or professional staff member where:
1. Monitoring suggests a level of disengagement with their studies; or
 2. There are concerns regarding their academic progress or the level of academic skills demonstrated; or
 3. Concerns for student wellbeing is reasonably considered to warrant some form of intervention.
- 4.3. Staff may refer students directly to the support services or via the Course Progress Advisor or the Student Advisor.

 11. Wellness program run by the Overseas Student Health Cover Provider.
- 4.9. Where students report non-academic issues that put them “At risk” of unsuccessfully completing their subjects of study, proactive support will be offered prior to Census date where possible. Adjustments include but are not limited to late withdrawal, leave of absence, reduced study load, academic consideration, mental health support and access plans for students with a disability or ongoing medical issue.
- 4.10. The Academic Consideration Policy and the Leave, Suspension and Cancellation Policy outlines the specific support and processes for students with serious health conditions which are impacting their capacity to effectively engage with their studies, and who may need alternative processes to support their continued enrolment and success at UOWCA.

Support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Students

- 4.11. UOWCA has specific arrangements for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students offered by the Woolyungah Indigenous Centre at the Wollongong campus. These include;
1. An Indigenous tailored academic program \(ITAP\) and student academic consultations;
 2. Woolyungah Education and Accommodation Scholarships;
 3. Student employability support providing tailored career consultations;

- 4.16. UOWCA encourages students with a disability to disclose and register the nature and extent of their disability with Student Advisors and the UOW Student Accessibility and Inclusion Team (SAIT) in a timely manner, that allows UOWCA and UOW SAIT to best support their needs.
- 4.17. The nature of the disability must be substantiated by current, relevant, and appropriate medical documentation.
- 4.18. UOWCA is not required to provide an adjustment to the extent that it would impose unjustifiable hardship on UOWCA or the placement provider or compromise the academic standards of a course or program, or other requirements or components that are inherent in or essential to its nature.
- 4.19. The Student Disability Policy provides further information on the processes for determining reasonable adjustments.

5. Student Safety on Campus

- 5.1. UOWCA is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all students, faculty, and staff and takes proactive measures to prevent, respond to, and mitigate critical incidents to safeguard the welfare of its students.
- 5.2. Enrolled students are required to complete an online module Consent Matters that covers sexual consent, communication in relationships, and bystander intervention. Students also have access to a range of face-to-face and online training to help protect students from violence, abuse and harassment delivered by the UOW Safe and Respectful Communities \(SARC\) team. UOW SARC provide support for students who have witnessed or experienced sexual assault, harassment, domestic and family violence, bullying or discrimination.
- 5.3. UOW's Security Services plays a pivotal role in providing a first or emergency response, first aid and should be the first point of contact. Students can request safety escorts if they feel unsafe. Students can raise an alert through the SafeZone app, or call security via phone on 4221 4900 or use a blue campus security telephone.
- 5.4. The Sexual Harm Response and Sexual Harassment Prevention Policy provides further information and a detailed description of the actions to be taken by Students and staff.
- 5.5. The Incident Management Policy provides a detailed description of the actions to be taken by students and staff for critical incidents and includes protocols for conducting student wellbeing checks.
- 5.6. The UOWCA General Manager and/or UOWCA Deputy General Manager and Director Global Programs are responsible for managing student critical incidents and will organise support where required.
- 5.7. The UOW SARC team and the UOWCA Student Services Manager are responsible for managing incidents related to domestic violence or sexual harm and provides trauma informed support.

6. Assessment of Academic Suitability for Study

- 6.1. This section outlines UOWCA's processes for assessing students' suitability to continue to undertake study for those students identified as "At-Risk" of not successfully completing their units of study.
- 6.2. Monitoring of course progress: UOWCA will conduct periodic reporting of a student's academic progress within subjects at the end of session in line with the monitoring requirements outlined in the Course Progression Policy.
- 6.3. Monitoring of Attendance: UOWCA will monitor and review a student's attendance to ensure they are meeting the minimum engagement requirements in their study as outlined in the Attendance Policy and Course Progression Policy.
- 6.4. Intervention Strategy: For students consistently "At-risk", or placed on a restricted course status, UOWCA will create an intervention strategy to assist the student in meeting the course progress requirements. This may include referral to support services appropriate to that student's needs, restriction on the number of subjects undertaken, language and learning support, leave of absence and/or options for course transfer. Students will be informed of their unsatisfactory course progress and be provided with the opportunity to seek academic advice as outlined in the Course Progression Policy.
- 6.5. Minimum Performance Requirements: Students must meet the minimum performance requirements for either the subject, and/or for specific assessment tasks or attendance that are part of the subject as detailed in the Subject Outline.
- 6.6. Reassessment Opportunities: Students who do not meet the minimum performance requirements may be given opportunities to undertake a supplementary assessment as outlined in the Assessment Guidelines and Academic Consideration Policy.
- 6.7. Academic Consideration: Consideration will be given to students facing extenuating circumstances, such as medical, personal or wellbeing issues which may have contributed to their academic difficulties as per the Academic Consideration Policy.
- 6.8. Academic Achievement Advice: Students identified as "At Risk" may be assigned a Course Progress or Student Advisor who will work with students to develop strategies for improvement and provide guidance on study habits, learning and support resources and advise on matters related to course progression and academic suitability as per the Course Progression Policy.
- 6.9. Course Exclusion Processes: Clear procedures are in place outlining the consequences of continued poor academic performance as a result of course progress monitoring and include potential exclusion from the course as outlined in the Course Progression Policy. Student have access to an appeal process and advocacy support during this process as outlined in the Student Grievance and Appeals Policy.

- 6.10. Review and Appeal Process: The Student Grievance and Appeals Policy, Assessment Guidelines and Remark Request Procedure details the processes for resolving student issues and concerns in relation to a mark or grade, an academic decision or the application of a policy that has affected a student's academic progress.

7. Continuous Monitoring and Review

- 7.1. UOWCA will monitor the effectiveness of this policy and make adjustments as needed to improve the support provided to students "At-Risk" of not progressing with their studies.
- 7.2. This policy will be reviewed annually for quality assurance purposes, to identify opportunities for improvement to the policy, and to ensure it remains fit for purpose.

8. Student Complaints

- 8.1. Students who have concerns about the support and/or outreach provided (or not provided) may lodge a complaint. All complaints can be submitted by the following mechanisms and will be managed under the Student Feedback Policy:
1. Formal Complaint online via the UOWCA's Feedback Portal for advice or to lodge a formal complaint;
 2. Semi-Formal Complaints via a Student Advisor Consultation and Teacher Consultation; or
 3. Informal Complaints via Social Media commentary.

9. Data Protection Compliance

- 9.1. UOWCA and its staff are committed to protecting the privacy of each individual's personal and health information, as required under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) ("PIIPA"), Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (NSW) ("HRIPA"), and any other relevant legislation.
- 9.2. The use, disclosure, and handling of personal and health information relating to students is outlined in the Privacy Policy. This is provided to all students at the point of enrolment. By signing the Acceptance Agreement, the student acknowledges and accepts the terms specified in the statement.
- 9.3. UOWCA will only use or disclose students' personal and/or health information for the purpose for which it was collected, for a directly related purpose, where the individual to whom the information relates provides consent, or where otherwise permitted or authorised by law. This includes where:
1. It is necessary to prevent a serious and imminent threat to the life, health, or safety of any individual; or
 2. UOWCA has a legal obligation to release the information, such as under subpoena; or

3. There is a legal requirement to report to relevant agencies, such as NSW police.
- 9.4. The management of personal and health information by UOWCA is detailed in its Privacy Policy which are available on UOWCA's policies and procedures website.

10. Roles and Responsibilities

- 10.1. UOWCA Academic staff are responsible for:
 1. Identifying students who are “At-Risk” of not progressing in the subject and providing appropriate subject specific academic support;
 2. Referring students to additional academic supports where needed;
 3. Referring students’ directly to an appropriate non-academic support where information is disclosed directly to them of a personal nature to ensure student privacy is upheld or obtaining consent from the student to refer them to the Student Support Team for outreach; and
